

On November 16th, SGA and LPN Trade students organized an event to Support Food to the homeless people.

This community service took place at ASSMCA in Arecibo (the Administration of Mental Health Service against the Addiction). Our SGA collected food items donated by center staff.

The LPN Trade students conducted a Blood and Glucoses test, around seventeen (17) homeless people participated and sixteen (16) of our students.

This activity was supported by Eduardo Martínez, Food Services Supervisor, Maria Mercado, TEAP Specialist and Marisol Acevedo, LPN Instructor.
